Renderings of the vision for improving the Genealogy Room with new Preservation Pad equipment - in and out of the library.

Larry Foerster (MC Historical Comm.) & Paul Chamberlain (Pres. MCG&HS)

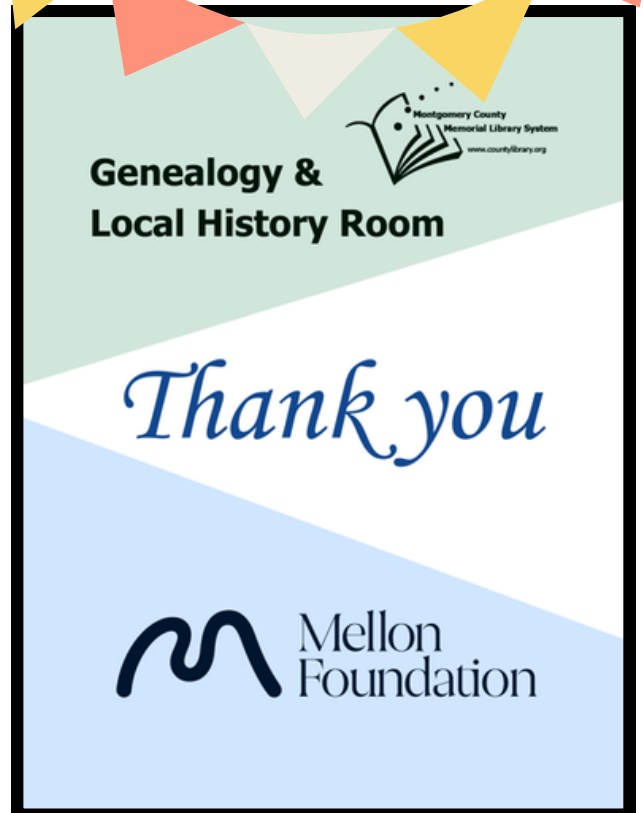

Cindy & Laura with Chase Silman, Field Rep. for Congressman Morgan Luttrell

Laura & Paula Tate of the MC County Clerk's Office

Our reception to celebrate the Mellon Foundation grant was the perfect opportunity to show off our ideas and plans for the next five years.

So many new books!

In addition to the generous of donations books from researchers and societies, we've added:

- Royal Houses of Europe collection = 45 books!
- Books about Delaware, New Mexico, Arizona, Indiana... and more
- More family histories
- 40+ books of unique materials we've had bound - these are one-of-a kind!

...and periodicals!

MCG&HS President Paul Chamberlain donated many years worth of the Chamberlain Chain - a newsletter of the Chamberlain Worldwide Genealogy Society. And Tom Dolhonde donated several years worth of the New Orleans Genesis newsletter.

NEW

Thanks to a donation from the RJOA UDC, the following titles were added:

My Confederate Kinfolk by Thulani Davis

Lady Rebel by Patty & George Beil

Queen of the Confederacy by Elizabeth W. Lewis

Civil War Damage Claims from Fulton Co. PA

Fulton Co. Hist. Soc.: Vol 22

N. Carolina Women of the Confederacy

We enjoyed all the children visiting the library this summer! We displayed "relics" for them to view and touch - a railroad spike, petrified wood - but the big winner was the typewriter! Genealogy is really the perfect "family friendly" hobby!
